Company Overview

Medtronic is the world leader in medical technology providing lifelong solutions for people with chronic disease. We offer products, therapies and services that enhance or extend the lives of millions of people. Each year, 2.5 million patients benefit from Medtronic's technology, used to treat conditions such as heart disease, neurological disorders, and vascular illnesses. Every 7 seconds, another life is improved by a Medtronic product or therapy.

Medtronic Microelectronics Center

A division of Medtronic Cardiac Rhythm Management, is the central hub for Medtronic's microelectronics manufacturing and product assembly for implantable cardiac, neurological and spinal medical devices. These devices include pacemakers and defibrillators, which restore and regulate a patient's heart rhythm and improve the heart's pumping function, as well as neurostimulation and drug delivery systems.

Business Outlook

Mission Statement

- To contribute to human welfare by application of biomedical engineering in the research, design, manufacture, and sale of instruments or appliances that alleviate pain, restore health, and extend life.
- To direct our growth in the areas of biomedical engineering where we display maximum strength and ability; to gather people and facilities that tend to augment these areas; to continuously build on these areas through education and knowledge assimilation; to avoid participation in areas where we cannot make unique and worthy contributions.
- To strive without reserve for the greatest possible reliability and quality in our products; to be the unsurpassed standard of comparison and to be recognized as a company of dedication, honesty, integrity, and service.
- To make a fair profit on current operations to meet our obligations, sustain our growth, and reach our goals.
- To recognize the personal worth of employees by providing an employment framework that allows personal satisfaction in work accomplished, security, advancement opportunity, and means to share in the company's success.
- To maintain good citizenship as a company.
